UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE

99,906

DESIGN FOR A CAMERA

Walter D. Teague, New York, and Chester W. Crumrine, Rochester, N. Y., assignors to Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N. Y., a corporation of New York

Application April 16, 1936, Serial No. 62,171

Term of patent 14 years

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that we, Walter D. Teague and Chester W. Crumrine, citizens of the United States of America, residing at New York city, in the county of New York and State of New York, and at Rochester, in the county of Monroe and State of New York, respectively, have invented a new, original, and ornamental Design for Cameras, of which the following is a specification, reference being had to the accompanying drawings, forming a part thereof, in which—

Fig. 1 is a front elevation of a camera constructed in accordance with our new design, the camera being in a folded or closed position.

Fig. 2 is a front elevation of the camera shown in Fig. 1 but with the parts in an open or picture-taking position.

Fig. 3 is a rear elevation of the camera shown in the preceding figures, and

Fig. 4 is an end elevation of the camera in an open or picture-taking position.

We claim:

The ornamental design for a camera as shown and described.

Signed at Rochester, New York, this 10th day of April 1936.

WALTER D. TEAGUE,
CHESTER W. CRUMRINE.
